Notes

Harriet has just completed filming of Joe Cinque's Consolation, a feature film, directed by Sotiris Dounoukos, to be released in 2016.

After attending a French-Australian bilingual school in Canberra, Harriet Davies moved to Melbourne at 14 to study opera at The Victorian College of the Arts Secondary School. Straight after high school, Harriet moved again to Perth to study acting. During her training, Harriet played various roles including: Mrs Bell in No Worries, Silvius in As You Like It, Harriet (Laura) in Realism, Mr Wemmick in Great Expectations, and Dromia of Syracuse in The Comedy of Errors. During her first year, Harriet won the Finlay Award for most improved.
